“Serving Together”

Phil 2:19-30

Colonel James Irwin, astronaut to the moon: “Returning to earth, I realized I was a servant-not a celebrity-as God’s servant on earth to share what I have experienced that others might know the glory of God”.

Jesus our Lord: “For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give His life a ransom for many.”

Timothy’s service is characterized by

Did you know

Our national anthem "O Canada" is one of the few national anthems that is actually a prayer? The song was originally commissioned by the then Lieutenant Governor of Quebec, the Honourable Théodore Robitaille, for the 1880 St. Jean Baptiste Day ceremony. Calixa Lavallee, a French Canadian who lived from 1842-1891 wrote the music, which was a setting of a patriotic poem composed by the poet and judge Sir Adolphe-Basile Routhier. The text was originally only in French.

An English translation of the lyric did not appear until 1906, and it was two more years before Robert Stanley Weir penned four English verses in 1908 to the anthem. Weir's words have been revised twice, taking their present form in 1980, but the French lyrics remain unaltered. "O Canada" was not officially Canada's national anthem until 1980, when it was signed into law on July 1 as part of that year's Canada Day celebrations. "O Canada" in both languages is a living testimony to the significant spiritual roots of our nation.

O Canada

Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Ruler supreme, who hearest humble prayer
Hold our Dominion, in thy loving care
Help us to find, O God, in thee
A lasting rich reward.
As waiting for the better day,
We ever stand on guard.
God keep our land, glorious and free.
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee!
