“Joseph and His Brethren” The Old Testament story of Joseph, steadfast servant of God, favored son of Jacob and Rachel, sold as a boy into slavery by his brothers, who were jealous of Joseph’s dreams and of his coat of many colors given him by Jacob. In Egypt, Joseph gained a position of authority in the household of his master, Pottiphar, and was later imprisoned on the false accusations of Pottiphar’s wife. He was released after interpreting Pharaoh’s dreams of the lean and fat cows. Pharaoh took him into favor. Due to the obedience of Joseph to his God, Egypt is greatly blessed. Joseph’s recognition of his brothers in the famine years when he was governor over Egypt is a famous scene. [“You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.....Don’t be afraid. I will provide for you and your children” - Genesis 50:20-21 NIV] English. [DVD A128a] [VHS A128b]
